

Roman Conquest: Iceni Revolt!

Will you have what it takes to help the Iceni people get rid of the Romans and win back their freedom?

Here's a short introduction to some of the people you will meet when you visit..

Titus

Roman Centurion.

Age: 30

Titus is a Roman soldier.

Titus hates the local Iceni tribe. He considers them to be uncivilised barbarians, inferior to the Romans.

Titus enjoys mocking the Iceni & forcing them to pay taxes to the Roman Empire. The Iceni people hate Titus.

Titus also enjoys training new soldier recruits to his army so hard that they collapse from exhaustion!

Prepare! Titus will be putting you through your paces to see whether you have what it takes to join the Roman Army!

Top tip: Mandata Captate means ‘Stand to Attention’ (feet together, arms by your side, chest pushed up & out) in Latin, the language of the Roman Army.

Lady Livia

Roman Lady.

Age: A Roman lady does not reveal her age to anyone!

Lady Livia is the wife of a retired Roman general.

She lives in a large villa outside the local Roman fort.

Livia enjoys all the good things in life: good food & wine, make-up, fine clothes & anything pretty or shiny.

However, Livia is not interested in doing anything which requires hard work. Work, Lady Livia believes, is what slaves are for.

Livia has a reputation for being rude & cruel, especially towards her slaves.

Prepare! Lady Livia will treat you as one of her slaves. If you know what's good for you, you'll do as she says & be very respectful. Practice your best manners before entering her home & she may treat you like a human being.

Top tip: Lady Livia is on the lookout for a new wig. She often uses the hair of her slaves. Best not to flaunt your luscious locks when in her villa.

Cata

Name: Cata, The Iceni Warrior.

Age: Unknown

Cata is a member of the Iceni tribe. Her family are very skilled metal workers and make beautiful items, including torcs, which are sacred to the Iceni people.

Cata has a torc which she wears around her neck during special ceremonies.

Cata dislikes the Romans and the way they treat her people. She has trained as a warrior her entire life; she's now ready to put that training to good use & rid her land of the rotten Romans!

Prepare! Cata is preparing to help Queen Boudica revolt against the Romans. They will need your help! Practice your Iceni war cry to pump you up for battle; BOU-DI-CA! BOU-DI-CA! BOU-DI-CA!

Top tip: Look at the blue paint the Iceni people wear on their faces. Do you know what the paint is made from? Maybe you could study some Iceni patterns to paint on your own face when you become a warrior.

The Druid

Name: The Druid

Age: "As old as time itself.."

The Druids were the priests, teachers & judges of the native tribes in Britannia.

Many Britons believed that Druids were magic!

The Druid you will meet lives in a dark, mysterious place where they collect ingredients for their mystical potions.

The Druid is hiding from the Romans; the Romans hate the Druids because they cause trouble & encourage native tribes to rebel against Roman rule.

But the Druids are very important to the Iceni & the other tribes people in Britannia, and their treatment at the hands of the Romans has made the call for rebellion even stronger!

Prepare! The Druid will need your help to create a potion for the upcoming rebellion. You will need a strong stomach; some of the ingredients include human teeth, bones & blood!

Top tip: Wash your hands afterwards!

SEE YOU SOON!
